

2002 Kenridge Invitational

Steve Marino, who ended Saturday's round four shots back, overtook Keith Decker to win by one stroke in the final round of the Kendridge Invitational at Farmington Country Club. With the weather cooling late in the afternoon, and the wind coming to a still, Marino stepped up his game and shot a remarkable round of 66 to finish the Kendridge at 208, cumulatively. Pemberton finished second with an even par round of 70 to tie Keith Decker's cumulative score of 209.
